Founded in 1760 in Le Mesnil-sur-Oger by François Delamotte, a grand cru village located in the Côte des Blancs, Champagne Delamotte works this enchanting terroir to grow chardonnay, the only white grape variety used to make champagne. Well-reputed among sommeliers and wine enthusiasts, our champagnes are known for their consistency, delicacy and exceptional character. For over 260 years, they have been developing four different cuvées, a small range that gives amateurs and experts alike a clear understanding of the art of champagne. Blanc de Blancs, Vintage Blanc de Blancs, Brut and Rosé are quintessential champagne wines.

The vineyard is planted in Urville, located in the southernmost part of Champagne region Côte des Bar which favored the Pinot Noir grape variety. The house is directed by Michel Drappier which produces both vintage and non-vintage cuvée as well as a prestige wine known as Grande Sèndrée. Drappier family has been cultivating what is authentic and natural in pursuit of fine Champagne. They also highlight the vinification techniques of low sugar dosage and moderate use of sulfites, especially in the production of Drappier Brut Nature Sans Soufre.*

Egly-Ouriet

Egly-Ouriet Champagne is sensual, unforgettable and highly sought after, a "cult" wine for Champagne lovers who crave the power and finesse of Pinot Noir-based wines. When we witnessed the transition in the 1980s from Michael Egly to his son, Francis, it was clear that Francis wasn't going to be satisfied with the Champagne status quo. He doesn't consider his competition among the great Champagne houses, but instead among the legendary producers of Burgundy.

Henri Giraud

François Hémart founded Champagne Henri Giraud at the beginning of the 17th century when the family settled in the village of Aÿ in the Champagne region of France. The vineyard was wiped out during the phylloxera outbreak and was replanted with grafted vines by Léon Giraud at the beginning of the 20th century. At the helm today is the 12th generation, Claude Giraud, who oversees the handcrafting of their top cuvée, Fût de Chêne Grand Cru d'Aÿ, alongside other world-class Champagne such as their Argonne, which is only made in stellar vintages.

Jacquesson

Despite more than 200 years of history, Jacquesson has become a revolutionary among Champagne's established houses, under the leadership of brothers Laurent and Jean-Hervé Chiquet. Since then, the house has adopted a herbicide-free, terroir-based philosophy. It also retired, after 150 years, its non-vintage blend and replaced it with a groundbreaking single-vintage-based cuvée, which changes yearly. And next came its terroir-based cuvées, an unprecedented move for a traditional house.

Moët et Chandon began as Moët & Co., established by Épernay wine trader Claude Moët in 1743 and began shipping his wine from Champagne to Paris. The reign of King Louis XV coincided with increased demand for sparkling wine. Soon after its foundation, and after son Claude-Louis joined Moët et Cie, the winery's clientele included nobles and aristocrats. Their best known label, Dom Pérignon, is named for the Benedictine monk remembered in legend as the "Mother of Champagne".

Pol Roger

Distinction and elegance. Established in 1849, Pol Roger is the “Gentlemen’s Champagne, as Jean Paul Kauffman wrote in ‘Voyage en Champagne’. It is not surprising therefore the British Royal family should have made it their favourite over the years. The purity and nobility of Champagne Pol Roger is also the fruit of know-how passed down from generation to generation. Founded by Nicolas Ruinart in the Champagne region in the city of Reims, the house is today owned by the parent company LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton SA. The first delivery of “wine with bubbles” went out in January, 1730. At first the sparkling wine was a business gift for cloth purchasers, as Dom Ruinart’s brother was a cloth merchant, but 6 years later Maison Ruinart terminated its cloth selling activities due to success in the Champagne

Opus One Collection

Opus One is the realized dream of two men: Baron Philippe de Rothschild of Chateau Mouton Rothschild in Bordeaux and Napa Valley vintner Robert Mondavi. Together, both founders set out to create a single wine dedicated to the pursuit of uncompromising quality. This singular mission shapes every vintage, today and for generations to come. The essence of time is expressed in Opus One by the character of each vintage. Place, often defined as terroir, represents the geography, the climate and the essential human element which is captured in the wine's balance between power and finesse, structure and texture. In Spago we are proud to showcase a vertical vintages of this legendary wine estate from 2005 to 2021.
