International DJs Steve Aoki and Afrojack are set to helm the decks at MARQUEE Singapore during the exhilarating Formula One race weekend (credit to MARQUEE Singapore)

MARQUEE Singapore is set to be an exhilarating party pit-stop with international DJs Steve Aoki and Afrojack headlining the race weekend on 30 September and 1 October respectively. No stranger to the local nightlife scene, both world-renowned DJs were part of MARQUEE Singapore's star-studded lineup during its grand opening month in 2019.

Bringing cross-genre electronic dance music hits, American electro house legend and two-time Grammy Award nominee, Steve Aoki, will take to the decks on 30 September. Ranked 10th on DJ Mag's Top 100 DJs of 2021, Aoki has released several Billboard-charting studio albums and collaborated with the likes of Linkin Park, Vini Vici and LMFAO. Aoki was last hosted by MARQUEE at its 1st Anniversary Virtual Party in 2020, a virtual clubbing event celebrating the club's first anniversary.

The revelry at MARQUEE will continue with Dutch DJ and music producer Afrojack helming the decks on 1 October. Since rising to fame with his multi-platinum-selling single 'Take Over Control' in 2010, the Grammy Award-winning DJ has headlined several global electronic dance music festivals. Afrojack was also placed on Forbes' '30 Under 30' entertainment list and has been regularly featured on DJ Mag's list of Top 100 DJs, among other accolades and awards to his name.

For the opening set, Afrojack will be joined by Swiss DJ and producer Gil Glaze, who will play deep and future house hits. As a Sony Music Switzerland artist, Gil Glaze regularly plays
