Champagne

Armand de Brignac

12th and 13th generation wine growers, Jean-Jacques Cattier and his son, Alexandre, craft the prestige cuvées of Armand de Brignac. Their dream was to create a champagne of the most exceptional quality, that would represent the best of the best from the region, where their family have grown vines for more than 250 years. The Cattier family is based in the Montagne de Reims and own 33 hectares of vines across some of the most lauded crus in Champagne.

Billecart-Salmon

Founded in 1818 by Nicolas Francois Billecart and Elisabeth Salmon, the house of Billecart-Salmon is now in the hands of sixth-generation Antoine Roland-Billecart. Guided by nearly two centuries of relentless passion, the Billecart-Salmon House preserves the best of ancestral traditions, carefully combined with the assets of modern technology. Winegrowers, oenologists, cellar masters and grape-pickers are all heirs to the tradition of quality exemplified by this remarkable family estate.

Bollinger

The Bollinger champagne House has created prestigious champagnes with character, distinguished by their elegance and complexity, since 1829. These outstanding wines are the result of rigorous attention to detail, for Bollinger accepts nothing less than excellence. This exemplifies the inimitable elegance for which the Champagne region is renowned and which has so impressed the Court of England that the House has been awarded the Royal Warrant since 1884.

Bruno Paillard

Bruno Paillard Champagne is an independent, family-run house. Its exceptional vineyards are located in the heart of the Champagne region. The wines have a highly personal style characterized by stringent quality control at every stage of the process. The house was the first to indicate the date of disgorgement on its bottles so that our clients can choose when to taste the champagne. The style is a marriage of elegance and complexity with remarkable purity, a true freshness and a silky texture.

Camille Savès

The Savès family has lived in the heart of Bouzy since 1894 with Eugène Savès, an agricultural engineer by trade, founded the house when he married Anaïs Jolicœur, the daughter of a Wine producer from this picturesque village. Since then, over the years, Louis, Camille and Hervé have followed in their father's footsteps as head of the House, perpetuating the family values that established its reputation. The Savès family perform each stage of the process, from pressing to dispatching, on their estate.

Egly-Ouriet

Egly-Ouriet Champagne is sensual, unforgettable and highly sought after, a "cult" wine for Champagne lovers who crave the power and finesse of Pinot Noir-based wines. When we witnessed the transition in the 1980s from Michael Egly to his son, Francis, it was clear that Francis wasn't going to be satisfied with the Champagne status quo. He doesn't consider his competition among the great Champagne houses, but instead among the legendary producers of Burgundy.

Henri Giraud

François Hémart founded Champagne Henri Giraud at the beginning of the 17th century when the family settled in the village of Aÿ in the Champagne region of France. The vineyard was wiped out during the phylloxera outbreak and was replanted with grafted vines by Leon Giraud at the beginning of the 20th century. At the helm today is the 12th generation, Claude Giraud, who oversees the handcrafting of their top cuvée, Fût de Chêne Grand Cru d'Aÿ, alongside other world-class Champagne such as their Argonne, which is only made in stellar vintages.

Krug

Krug Champagne founded by Joseph Krug in 1843. It is based principally in Reims, the main city in France's Champagne region and is one of the famous Champagne houses that formed part of the Grande Marques. Today the house is majority owned by the multinational conglomerate LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton S.A. whose portfolio includes other well known wine brands such as Moët & Chandon, Veuve Clicquot, Château d'Yquem and Ruinart. Despite LVMH's majority ownership, the Krug family is still actively involved in all the key decisions of the house but does not manage the day-to-day operations.

Lanson

Since 2006 it has been owned by Lanson-BCC group headed by Bruno Paillard. Lanson was founded in 1760 by a magistrate, François Delamotte. He was succeeded by his son Nicholas-Louis in 1798 and formed a partnership with Jean-Baptiste Lanson, who, in 1837, gave the company the name of Lanson et Cie. The company focused, as still today, on exporting champagne to foreign markets. Lanson remains a purveyor of champagne to the British Royal Family and displays the coat of arms of Elizabeth II on its bottles.

Laurent Perrier

Laurent-Perrier is a Champagne house founded in 1812. It is the main company of the Laurent-Perrier Group, whose other flagship brands include the houses of Salon, De Castellane and Delamotte. Laurent-Perrier Group also acquired Chateau Malakoff as of 2004. The success of Laurent-Perrier was also driven by their efforts which are now focused on perpetuating exacting standards and elegance and on preserving the independence of a House while asserting the epicurean vision of the brand.

Louis Roederer

Since its founding in 1776, it was inherited and renamed by Louis Roederer in 1833. It remains today as one of the only still independent and family-run maisons de champagne. The House of Champagne Louis Roederer has been "in pursuit of the ultimate" and is synonymous with the world's great Champagnes. With over 70% of the grapes coming from its own estate vineyards, and the largest percentage of vineyard ownership of any major Champagne house, Louis Roederer is proud to have such careful control over the quality of its grapes.

Moët & Chandon

Moët et Chandon began as Moët & Co., established by Épernay wine trader Claude Moët in 1743 and began shipping his wine from Champagne to Paris. The reign of King Louis XV coincided with increased demand for sparkling wine. Soon after its foundation, and after son Claude-Louis joined Moët et Cie, the winery's clientele included nobles and aristocrats. Their best known label, Dom Perignon, is named for the Benedictine monk remembered in legend as the "Mother of Champagne".

Perrier-Jouët

This origin story of those house dates to 1810, when the Épernay-based cork supplier Pierre Nicolas Perrier married Rose Adélaïde Jouët, the daughter of a Calvados producer. Perrier's family owned vineyards in Dizy, Chouilly, Aÿ. The newlyweds begin producing champagne under the name Perrier-Jouët. Adèle focused on vineyards and winemaking; Pierre Nicolas focused on sales and marketing. Today the house is under the Pernod Ricard umbrella of brands.

Pol Roger

Distinction and elegance. Established in 1849, Pol Roger is the “Gentlemen’s Champagne, as Jean Paul Kauffman wrote in ‘Voyage en Champagne’”. It is not surprising therefore the British Royal family should have made it their favourite over the years. The purity and nobility of Champagne Pol Roger is also the fruit of know-how passed down from generation to generation. From the harvest in the region’s best vineyards to the painstaking work in the cellar, each gesture has its importance.

Ruinart

Ruinart is the oldest established Champagne house, exclusively producing champagne since 1729. Founded by Nicolas Ruinart in the Champagne region in the city of Reims, the house is today owned by the parent company LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton SA. The first delivery of “wine with bubbles” went out in January, 1730. At first the sparkling wine was a business gift for cloth purchasers, as Dom Ruinart’s brother was a cloth merchant, but 6 years later Maison Ruinart terminated its cloth selling activities due to success in the Champagne business.

Tarlant

The Tarlant family traces their winegrowing history back to 1687, when Pierre Tarlant first cultivated grapevines in the Marne Valley. In 1928, Louis Adrien Tarlant produced the family's first estate-bottled champagne, and since then there have been four successive generations of Tarlants producing wine at their estate in the village of Oeuilly. Today the estate is in the hands of Benoît Tarlant, who has been making wine here since 1999.

Veuve Fourny

After Purchasing a highly desirable block in the region of Vertus in 2011, brothers Emmanuel and Charles- Henry have now established themselves as young and vibrant fifth generation growers. They now control what is absolutely fabulous terroir, deemed as some of the finest in Vertus. Drawing on a very small pool of growers with a total vineyard area of approx 20 hectares focusing on organic, bio-dynamic and healthy natural practices, the brothers are mindful not to sacrifice the fruit for the nature of being "organic" and manage the vineyards to desired best possible fruit outcomes vintage to vintage.
