WFW2011 Singapore Exclusive Haute Couture Exhibition and VIP Fashion Night at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands are just some of the treats for shoppers

Singapore, 6 October 2011 – The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, the title sponsor of the inaugural Women’s Fashion Week 2011 (WFW 2011) Singapore, announces a series of exclusive fashion events as a build up to the most anticipated fashion event of the year. Co-organized by Fide Multimedia and SENATUS, WFW 2011 Singapore will present a season of prêt-a-porter shows from 21 to 23 October and exclusive shows which will showcase Parisian Haute Couture in Singapore from 26 to 30 October.

A prelude to the Haute Couture Week is the WFW 2011 Singapore Haute Couture Exhibition. From 6 to 31 October, an exclusive exhibition featuring dozens of Haute Couture creations, retrospective and current, from various Couturiers will be on display. The collection will showcase the rarefied craftsmanship that is inherent in Haute Couture. The exhibition opens at The Shoppes’ Grand Colonnade South, and will be on display throughout the mall at five locations over the entire month.

A second initiative designed especially to thank shoppers for their support and provide an exciting and distinct shopping environment is the WFW 2011 VIP Fashion Night at The Shoppes. Held on 13 October, with free champagne flowing just for our shoppers at pop up bars throughout the mall and in-store discounts at over 120 boutiques offering up to 70 percent discount, for just one night, this will be a shopping extravaganza not to be missed,

At least 30 models will also make shopping selection easier as they showcase the season’s latest fashion apparels, accessories and reveal the hottest beauty and hair tricks from the top hair and make-up salons at The Shoppes. Participating brands at the VIP Fashion Night include 7 For All Mankind, Agatha Paris, Alleira, Anne Fontaine, Avana, Furla, Hoamgar, IROO, Longchamp, Moiselle, Society of Black Sheep, Urbanhair and Zadig & Voltaire, to name just a few.

Frank Cintamani, WFW 2011 Singapore’s Chairman and Founder of Fide Multimedia, said, “This is indeed an international fashion coup for us in Singapore! This is the first time that eight designers, who are either Haute Couturiers or invited members of the Chambre Syndicale de la Haute Couture, are showing their collections collectively, outside of France, in one world-class venue – The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands. Besides Gustavo Lins and Stephane Rolland, we have the pleasure of also hosting Anne Valérie Hash, Christophe Josse, Dominique Sirop, Alexis Mabille, Eymeric François and Maxime Simoens. This event in Singapore marks Couture’s next milestone.”

Mr. Mark Juliano, Marina Bay Sands’ Senior Vice President of Marketing, said, “The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands is all about redefining our shoppers’ experience and with the unveiling of the Haute Couture Exhibition, we are doing just that. This exhibition will unravel the world of Parisian Haute Couture and for the first time give Singapore an insight into this complex world of creativity and passion.”

“We are also very excited about the exclusive WFW 2011 VIP Fashion Night at The Shoppes. We have been committed to ensuring our shoppers are rewarded for their support thus far but at the same time, we want to attract those who appreciate only the best retail mix and a fun shopping environment. We have worked tirelessly in collaborating with our leading retailers to bring the finest selection in fashion, and are certain that after London, Paris and New York, our shoppers will have the same world-class experience, right here at The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands.”

Kien M Lee, WFW Director and Founder of SENATUS, explained, "Women's Fashion Week Haute Couture Exhibition hopes to instill Couture consciousness amongst the public and fashionistas alike. This exhibition will showcase carefully chosen creations from the designers who will be featuring during Haute Couture Week.”

In addition to providing a sneak preview to the full line-up of magnificent creations one can expect during our event proper come late October, the exhibition will also serve to expose the finest designs in fashion to the patrons of The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands, as well as allow an up-close and in person appreciation of the fabric and construction of contemporary haute couture dresses. This is a rare experience that, until now, was afforded only to those who belong to the small club of customers around the world. Singaporeans can now admire the craftsmanship and the sartorial sophistication behind the artistry that is Haute Couture.

“Women’s Fashion Week’s finale presenting the best of Haute Couture from Paris with the support of our title sponsor, The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands and our first-tier sponsors from DHL Express Singapore, Montblanc Southeast Asia and Rolls-Royce Motor Cars, Asia Pacific, represent the marriage of the best-in-class from each industry – of fashion, logistics, watchmaking, luxury automobiles and retail. The Official Charity Partner is CELTON, which was an Official Sponsor of Men’s Fashion Week Singapore and now Women’s Fashion Week Singapore.

COMMITMENT TO PHILANTHROPY

The Celton Group is fully committed to contributing to society through a systematic series of corporate donations, active support and partnership which seeks to benefit the lives of the less fortunate and to provide opportunities for growth and development for those who need it most. Celton’s business culture, one it very much believes in and which extends to its philanthropic and charitable efforts revolve around “an opportunity to serve.”

SUSTAINABLE PHILANTHROPY

Over the last couple of years, the group has been active in a number of initiatives across the globe, most notably in Singapore. Celton understands the need to be both consistent and committed to the causes that it support. Such dedicated support over the course of a couple of years, ensures that the organizations that the group champions are able to plan ahead, and make balanced decisions, and positively impact the lives of many people.

A DEDICATION TO YOUTH

Celton’s approach to focusing on youth and youth related activities has been based on the notion that affecting and influencing the younger generations will have significant benefits in the longer term. Affecting lives and changing behaviours can often be best achieved by supporting a country’s youth and younger members of our societies. There was perhaps no better way for Celton to express this, than through its ‘Official Supporter’ role of the inaugural Youth Olympic Games in 2010.

LEADING BY EXAMPLE

As a leading international organization dedicated to pursuing a business strategy that encompasses a positive approach to philanthropy and corporate social responsibility, we recognize we are well placed to set an example to others. Such a belief was recognized by our invitation to the UBS Global Philanthropy Forum 2010. Celton’s support last year for a range of charitable and philanthropic causes, spanning the arts and culture to those in need as a result of chronic social or medical conditions represents what it believes to be good corporate behaviour.
