Open Stage concert series returns to Marina Bay Sands

Free concert series showcasing local and regional music acts is back for a fifth edition

From L-R: Dru Chen, Priscilla Abby and Gareth Fernandez will perform at Open Stage

Singapore (12 April 2018) – Marina Bay Sands returns to drum up support for the brightest music talent in Singapore and Southeast Asia with the fifth edition of its Open Stage concert series on 21 April, Saturday.

The free concert series, which was first launched last March, will be headlined by three artists on 21 April: Malaysian YouTube sensation and singer Priscilla Abby, homegrown R&B singer Gareth Fernandez and local indie-soul singer-songwriter Dru Chen.

Held at the outdoor Event Plaza, Open Stage features local and regional music acts, with a strong focus on homegrown bands and musicians. The acts span across different musical genres ranging from pop and indie to rock, blues and R&B. Since its launch, the series has seen acts such as Singaporean artists Corrinne May and Sezairi Sezali perform.

About the acts

Malaysian YouTube star-turned-singer Priscilla Abby is a rising star known for singing cover songs with an EDM twist. After signing with WebTVAsia in 2017, she has since released her first single 'I Love The Sky', with her top three videos amassing 20.9 million views on YouTube.

No stranger to the burgeoning local music scene, the suave and charismatic Gareth Fernandez effortlessly delivers soulful R&B melodies with impressively high notes. His latest single, My Heartbreak Song, has been on high rotation on radio 987FM since its release in January.

Indie-soul singer-songwriter Dru Chen, who has just returned from his Japan tour, will be releasing his much-anticipated debut album in the 2nd quarter of 2018. Expect to be blown away by his stunning falsetto and dynamic vocal range.

Performance times

7:15-7:45pm: Dru Chen

8:15-8:45pm: Gareth Fernandez

9:15-10:00pm: Priscilla Abby

This performance is supported by media company Bandwagon.
