Marina Bay Sands unveils Sands Live concert series

Sands Live will offer fans the opportunity to experience the biggest stars up close

Singapore (March 13, 2014) - Marina Bay Sands is proud to launch Sands Live, a live concert series that will feature some of the world's biggest acts performing in the intimate, state-of-the-art entertainment venues found in Marina Bay Sands. The acts to be featured in Sands Live typically perform in stadiums and arenas. Sands Live events will provide audiences with unique experiences and an opportunity to connect with the world's best entertainers in a manner that is not possible in larger venues.

Sands Live concert series will kick off with The Rolling Stones—14 On Fire Tour on 15 March. To be held at the Sands Grand Ballroom, The Rolling Stones concert will feature just over 5,500 seats and a performance stage that extends into the audience. This setting provides Rolling Stones fans the chance to experience the rock and roll legends in a club-like setting and is the finale of the Asian leg of the tour, which has included performances at some of Asia's largest stadiums and arenas.

Each Sands Live concert will feature a distinctive layout befitting the venue and unique to Marina Bay Sands. This, coupled with a high-end, high-tech audio-visual experience, allows Sands Live to deliver unparalleled, quality events on a smaller scale.

"Sands Live will represent a new level of entertainment in Singapore. Marina Bay Sands will give fans the unique opportunity to enjoy the best of entertainment on a more personal level. While the venues are small, the performances will be big," said Mr. George Tanasijevich, President and Chief Executive Officer of Marina Bay Sands.
