Over 500 jobs for Singaporeans during Marina Bay Sands Career Fest 2015

Singapore (20 May 2015) – As Marina Bay Sands crosses its 5th year milestone in Singapore, the integrated resort is also continuing to create jobs for Singaporeans. From 22-23 May, more than 500 jobs will be available during Marina Bay Sands' large-scale Career Fest 2015. Ranging from frontline and corporate roles for existing and new establishments, the one-stop career fest is looking for applicants who are passionate and aspire to bring their career to greater heights.

A total of 20 departments including F&B, Marketing, MICE, Security, Housekeeping and more are recruiting and interested applicants will be interviewed on the spot, with successful candidates possibly getting a job offer on the same day. Marina Bay Sands Career Fest aims to reach out to Singaporeans including fresh graduates as well as housewives and retirees seeking to return to the workforce.

The Career Fest will be held from 22 and 23 May, Friday and Saturday – at Sands Expo and Convention Centre Hall C from 10a.m. to 6p.m.

Marina Bay Sands is one of the best places to work for... and this is WHY:

- Marina Bay Sands is the “Most Attractive Employer in the Services and Hospitality Industry”, according to the Randstad Awards for 2014 and 2015. It is based on perceived attractiveness of 75 of the largest commercial companies \(by employee size\) in Singapore. For 2015, the quantitative online survey is conducted between 8 September and 23 December 2014 by an independent external research agency (ICMA) among a population of 7,103 people in Singapore.
  - Over 8,000 hot meals are provided daily to all Team Members, for free. On a daily basis, 300-500 kilos of rice, 1.5 tonnes of vegetables and fruits and 1 tonne of fish and meats are served to team members.
  - A world class integrated resort takes care of not only its guests, but also its staff. Marina Bay Sands recently completed the refurbishment of its men's bathrooms for Team Members, in a style reminiscent of Banyan Tree Spa. The bathrooms come complete with rain showers, individualized changing cubicles and even sleeping cots for team members to rest over break time.
