MIX MASTER

As demonstrated by the street-style stalwarts at menswear trade show Pitti Uomo, the key to looking stylish lies in mixing and matching – layers, colours, textures – like a pro. This season, it's impeccably tailored separates in a variety of timeless blue hues. Pair with playful accessories in brown and exotic skins for good measure.

GARDEN STATE

Using unexpected combinations that allow the freshness of ingredients to shine through isn't only done in the realm of modern fine dining. The same can be seen in the olfactory world: Jo Malone's The Herb Garden collection offers sparkling combos such as lavender and coriander, Solinotes Fleur de Frangipanier entices with apple and vanilla, while Miss Dior and Coco Mademoiselle revive the senses with zingy notes like orange, jasmine and patchouli.

GOOD SPORT

With sneakers continuing their reign on the runway and the streets, one thing's for sure – the sports luxe trend is here to stay. Look stylish effortlessly on and off the courts with these pieces.

CLICK & COLLECT

It's like having your cake and eating it too. The Shoppes at Marina Bay Sands launched a Click And Collect service last year that offers a curation of exclusive bags from cult and designer labels such as Armani/Marina Bay, 3.1 Phillip Lim and Proenza Schouler that you won't be able to get anywhere else in Singapore. What's more, it even allows you to reserve your favourite for up to 48 hours before collecting it in-store at The Shoppes.
